

SHARING THE FIRST RESULTS OF THE PROJECT LINKED LIVES

Conference • 7 February 2020 • Iscte, Aud JJ Laginha

9h45
Welcome

João Sebastião CIES Director

10h00
The project LINKED LIVES

Magda Nico

10h30
Keynote

Methods, subjective orientations and time in researching linked lives

Sarah Irwin
University of Leeds,
Director of Centre for Research on Families,
Life Course and Generations

11h45 Coffee break

12h00
Where are lives linked?

A bibliometrical analysis of the linked lives principle in the social sciences literature

Diana Carvalho and Magda Nico

Chair and comment:
Rita Gouveia ICS-UL

13h00 Lunch (not provided)

14h30
Exploring the concept of
"Long Term Precariousness":

Towards a new indicator

Nuno de Almeida Alves
and Helena Carvalho

Chair and comment:
Luísa Veloso CIES

15h30
Doing family histories, combining methodological tools: The potential for longitudinal and multilevel analysis
Maria Silva and Ana Caetano

Chair and comment:
Rosalina Costa CICS.Nova,
University of Évora

16h45
Closing remarks
Linked Lives Team